Gap Rock Lighthouse?

His Excellency—I may add to these answers | deepened and still serve the same purpose as at which the Surveyor-General has made, the present, that of carrying off the storm waters statement that my regret is common with that of the whole Colony that these works are not in a more forward condition, but in both cases the delay has been unavoidable under the circomstances. The Gap Rock work we cannot expect to be done in a moment. The construction entirely depends on access being possible. and it so happens that since this matter was settled there has been really no favourable time. The favourable time is to come: everything is: ready for that favourable time, and when we get opportunities for landing I have no doubt the work will be pushed on rapidly every. thing being ready therefor. With regard to the Central Market, the delay has been unfortunate in-many ways, but at the same time the event is not altogether without compensation. The late Surveyor-General, whose ability we all recognised, left an incomplete plan of this building on his departure, a plan incomplete inasmuch as neither the roof, nor the floors, nor the Bace-course, thereby conferring a boon might be said against it by Mr. Ford or other I think such a system open to a very of to apply his attention to the subject he came to the conclusion—a conclusion which I think has not a desirable one. He has, in conscorence desettled upon yet, as a matter of such importance cannot, be dealt with very hastily or without hearing opinions from all sides. But have been inaugurated during your term of office with the work as speedily as possible, the view of everyone and if the water looked at I may say in the first place that, even supposing this is in all other respects only as satisfactory as Mr. Price's, it is preferable inasmuch as it is estimated to cost $235,000 instead also by the defendant See Gho Chye, and plaintiff of $360,000. Mr. Price's plan, so far as we can make out, would cost $360,000, while Mr. Brown's. so far as we can make out, will cost $235,000. However, besides cost there are a number of other advantages. Mr. Price's building was to be constructed so as to be covered with an iron and glass roof. Now I have very little doubt. and I think it requires very little consideration to show that a glass roof on a market where perishable goods are kept, inasmuch as it raises the temperature very much, is very undesirable indeed. Where there is such a very wide building as that designed by Mr. Price. al-
